

Cotabato Light and Power Company through its social development arm, the Aboitiz Foundation, implements various social responsibility program.

One of its major focus is on Education. Through the years, Cotabato Light has been very supportive of providing assistance to schools within its franchise. Among the various assistance extended are refurbishments of school classroom buildings, science and computer laboratory, computer donations and educational assistance to performing students. A manifestation of its commitment to improve on the quality of education in the area.

Providing access to electricity in far-flung areas within the franchise, is also considered one of its corporate responsibility, alleviating the lives of the people.

The company will continue to hold on to its commitment and thrust as a dependable electric provider in the area and a partner in progress that will create greater and meaningful impact to the community.